

BELLA'S PUPPIES! READY TO ADOPT!

On December 26th, Bella had four black puppies and then had to be taken to the vet after 2 1/2 hours of nothing happening. They gave her a shot to start labor again and she then had the last four. The fifth pup's sac had broken before it came out and that is what had stopped her labor. The pup had breathed in some fluid which had caused her to stop breathing but she is doing well and we hope she has no complications from it. Bella had five girls and three boys. The smallest is one of the tan colored ones and was the next to last to come out. The tan ones are one boy and one girl and both have white tips on the end of their tails. The last one born has the coloring of a rottweiler. The rest are black with two of them having white spots on the chest area. Bella is doing great with them. She is being a perfect mother.

Guess we have to say they are the mailman's or the milkman's because they don't look like Golden Retrievers. But they are still cute.

Puppy Size (Continued from page 8)

The two women looked at each other for a moment. Mom didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

As she stooped down to hug the child, she did a little of both.

"Mom, every time you hold me, I sigh. When you and Daddy come home from work and hug each other, you both sigh. I knew I would find the right puppy if it sighed when I held it in my arms," she said. Then, holding the puppy up close to her face, she said, "Mom, he loves me. I heard the sighs of his heart!"
